CHIP Card

The CHIP Card enables candidates to take the required Physical Ability Assessment and apply to multiple police departments.

The Physical Ability Assessment is a standardized test used by all Connecticut Police Departments, following standards set by the Police Officer Standards and Training Council of the State of Connecticut.

In order to become a police officer in the State of Connecticut, candidates must pass the Physical Ability Assessment by meeting the standard for all four components of the test:

- Muscular endurance
- Anaerobic power
- Absolute strength
- Cardiovascular capacity

When an applicant successfully completes the physical ability test, he or she will receive a CHIP Card. The CHIP Card is valid for six months from the original assessment date and allows a recruit to apply for a job with any participating CHIP police department, without taking the Physical Ability Assessment again.

WWW.CERTIFYFIT.COM

Complete Health & Injury Prevention

CHIP was founded in 1996 by Sean Cassidy.

Sean, a former Certified Athletic Trainer and Certified Cooper Law Enforcement Physical Fitness Specialist, was exposed to the hiring process municipalities undertake when seeking qualified police candidates while he was employed as a PT Instructor by the Connecticut Police Officer Standards and Training Council.

CHIP was awarded a contract by the Capitol Region Council of Governments (CRCOG) to provide physical ability assessments for their public safety council. The CHIP Card was the result of the CRCOG contract.

The goals of the CHIP Card:

- Reduce the burden on the police candidates by allowing them to take one Physical Ability Assessment that would be accepted by multiple police agencies.
- Reduce the time and cost for the police departments by allowing one centralized group to provide the Physical Ability Assessment.

Police departments throughout the state are realizing the convenience of working with a central testing service that not only caters to their unique assessment needs, but helps to expand their potential pool of applicants at no additional cost to the department.

Testing with CHIP helps candidates apply to a network of participating police departments and helps departments conserve resources by outsourcing their testing.

The Test

How to use the CHIP test when applying to a police department:

Passing the Physical Ability Assessment is a prerequisite for candidacy with many police departments in the State of Connecticut. By the way, the CHIP Card has been accepted by public safety agencies in NY, NH, WY, MD, and VT. If your applying to a department outside of Connecticut ask the agency if they will accept your CHIP Card results. CHIP simplifies the process by enabling police applicants to:

- Take one assessment
- Pay one fee
- Use test results for multiple police departments

Once a candidate passes a CHIP Physical Ability Assessment, he or she receives a CHIP Card that is valid for six months and is accepted by all CHIP participating departments.

Registering for a Test WWW.CERTIFYFIT.COM

To begin the process of registration for a CHIP Physical Ability Assessment, simply check our calendar of upcoming assessment dates and register online prior to the corresponding registration deadline. You must also download and complete a medical form and a waiver form and bring them with you to the test. A fee of $65 will be collected at the time of registration. All payments must be made online using a credit card. No refunds will be provided.

What You Need On the Day of the Assessment

Identification

In order to participate in a Physical Ability Assessment proctored by CHIP, you must provide two forms of identification. One form of identification must be a photo ID, preferably your driver's license. If you don't have a current driver's license, you can bring one of the following:

- Government-issued photo identification
- Military photo identification
- Current passport

One other form of identification must also be presented on the day of the assessment, including:

- Work ID
- Birth certificate
- College ID
- Social Security card

- Insurance card

Medical and Waiver Forms

Both forms must be printed out and completed. The medical approval form must be signed, stamped and dated by a MD, NP or PA. You will not be allowed to take the test without a signed medical approval form.

Appropriate Attire

Appropriate athletic attire, including athletic shoes, must be worn to the assessment. Weather conditions should be taken into consideration when dressing for the assessment as you will be outdoors during portions of the assessment.

It is highly recommended that individuals bring water with them to the test. Candidates should not bring bags, backpacks, or digital devices with them to the test
